Curricula for the 21st Century 2013

This Interinstitutional Symposium is designed to be truly unique allowing the participants to share creative and innovative approaches being applied by dynamic institutions across the country. The symposium's goal is to help participants take a proactive and visionary approach in planning the curriculum required to meet the demands of our profession now and in the future. The meeting focuses on sharing in a collaborative effort to create highly successful educational programs. The meeting venue is a magnificent resort on the island of St Pete's Beach. Located just 30 minutes from Tampa International Airport, the resort is situated on 5 acres of beautiful sugar-white sandy beach with brilliant waters of the Gulf of Mexico. The Guy Harvey Outpost- A TradeWinds Resort is an all-suites hotel with a separate conference center.
